SÜDTIROL SKY MARATHON ...

... has a total length of 45 km and an elevation gain of 2.750 metres.

START: Saturday, 27th August 2022 at 07.30 am from Piazza Walther in Bolzano.

ORGANIZERS

The extreme mountain running race “Südtirol Sky Marathon” is held by the amateur sports club “Südtirol Ultra Skyrace”, in cooperation with various associations, and “Sportler AG”.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

All men and woman can participate who have reached their 18th birthday on or before August 27th, 2022 and who meet the following requirements:

- participants with residence in Italy: must have a valid sports medical certificate for track and field pursuant to art. 5 of Ministerial Decree 18.02.1982. The certificate must be issued by a doctor specialized in sports medicine. A copy must be sent until 14th August 2022 via Fax: +39 0471 620438 or E-Mail: info@suedtirol-ultraskyrace.it.
- participants with residence outside Italy: according to the Italian law, in order to participate in extreme races in Italy, contestants residing abroad must submit a medical certificate of physical fitness, which must be sent until 14th August 2022 to the organizers via Fax: +39 0471 620438 or Email: info@suedtirol-ultraskyrace.it.

You can download a submission form of a medical certificate

here: www.suedtirol-ultraskyrace.it/en/registration.html

Each participant must be able to complete the race at his/her own risk, and must take care for his/her own self-supply and equipment. The Südtirol Sky Marathon proceeds on a very demanding route and requires:

- Surefootedness,
- head for heights,
- excellent psycho-physical condition,
- self-supply,
- experience with extreme mountain races,
- a good sense of direction and confidence by day, thunderstorm and fog.

LIMITED NUMBER OF CONTESTANTS

This race has a limited number of participants. A maximum of 300 persons can participate, and the organization reserves the right to exclude persons from participation and to vary the maximum number of participants. In such a case, the date of entry will be used as the criterion for determining the entry.

ENTRY

Participants must sign online at www.suedtirol-ultraskyrace.it/en/registration.html or www.datasport.com/en/. Personal information will be collected by Datasport and by the organizers. The entry opens December 1st, 2021 and closes August, 14th 2022. When entering the Sky Marathon, participants implicitly accept the rules of the race. Actual version available online.

RESIGNATION – TRANSFER OF START NUMBER

The entry fee usually will NOT be refunded. Expectations are made for athletes who cannot participate due to illness or injury, but certified by a doctor. If the route is shortened or the race is cancelled due to reasons beyond the organizers' control, the entry fee will NOT be refunded or credited toward next year's race. Datasport Spa offers an insurance to refund the entry fee in case of illness or injury. Further information is available during the online entry process. The start number can be transferred to another person for justified reasons (illness or injury) until August 14th, 2021. A reregistration on a shorter race (Südtirol Sky Trail) is possible. The difference will not be refunded.

CATERING - SELF SUPPLY

The map of the route shows the locations with catering. The following will be available at each catering point: water, energy drinks, energy bars, fruit and nuts. The dishes offered at catering points must be eaten on place; they can not be taken away. Natural water is at disposal to refill bottles or Camelbaks. Participants must bring their own cup or a suitable container.

ROUTE AND CHECKPOINTS

Participants must follow the established route, which is suitably marked. Any deviations from the route will result in disqualification of the participant (see the „Sanctions“ section, below). Participants are required to pass by various checkpoints. If a runner does not run through a checkpoint, he/she will be disqualified.

EQUIPMENT

By entering the race, every participant is obligated to carry the equipment listed below. Sanctions will be levied against participants who fail to comply.

REQUIRED:

- the Start Number, with integrated chip, must be attached visibly, on the front (to receive the chip signal well)
- a backpack or waist-bag
- a mobile phone, which must be charged and kept on at all times
- safety numbers of the organization (+39 0471 1551040) and emergency number (112) stored in the mobile phone directory
- a canteen or CamelBak container, cups or a container for drinking
- enough food to enable the contestant to reach the finish line
- aluminium survival cover/emergency cover
- a whistle
- a first-aid kit: Sterile absorbent gauze compresses, cloth band- age, adhesive bandages
- a waterproof jacket and warm clothes suited for use in bad weather and at high altitudes
- racing pants extending at least below the knee, or leg-warmers
- a cap, headband or other type of hat
- gloves
- the map of the circuit/Road-Book or GPS

- the safety plan in case of bad weather and accidents

RECOMMENDED:

- a change of clothes
- sunblocker
- a knife
- string

BAG CONTROL

The organisers may require contestants to bring other equipment before the start. Spot checks to verify the equipment will be made at the start, along the circuit and at the finish line.

RETURN

If for any reason, an athlete terminates the run, he/she will be responsible for his/her own return. The race's organization has set up a shuttle service at strategic points. These points are marked in the map of the route. Expect waiting times.

SHUTTLE SERVICE - FINISH - START

A shuttle service is available in Sarentino (public bus parking area) to bring the athletes back to Bolzano.

START NUMBERS

Each participant will be provided with:

- Start number: one must be worn in a clearly visible position in front on the chest. The start number provides access to the service area, the clothing storage area, the showers and the shuttle service in Sarentino.
- Map of the route: all participants have to download the map from the homepage and take it behind during the competition.
- Safety plan: all participants have to download the map from the homepage and take it behind during the competition.
- Runner bags: participants receive a runner bag for their personal belongings to bring to the finish. No valuables or fragile items should be left in the bag. Together with the starting number the athlete will receive one adhesive label, which must be placed on the bag.

BRIEFING

All athletes have to participate at the briefing.

ATTENDANTS

Attendants are allowed and must comply with the rules of the race and are not allowed to offer unfair assistance (carrying, pulling, pushing, transporting equipment by car). But they can encourage and provide moral support to participants. If an attendant does not obey the rules, the participant will be disqualified.

SAFETY AND MEDICAL CARE

Along the route there will be assistance points with phone connection to the race control, ambulances, civil defense service and a number of doctors. The assistance services are required to help participants who are in trouble and to use the organizers' resources. The race judges, official doctors, auxiliary personnel, White Cross, and the official mountain rescue service are authorized to exclude any participant from the race, who are considered to be unfit. Auxiliary personnel are authorized to evacuate -with all means at their disposal - any participant considered to be in danger. If necessary, the official mountain rescue service will be called in. It will then take charge of and employ all suitable means (including helicopters) at its disposal. The decision to call the mountain rescue service in order to aid a person requiring assistance is exclusively left up to organizers' staff. Any expenses associated with the use of these extraordinary means will be charged to the participant receiving assistance, in accordance with applicable regulations. Participants who see a doctor or auxiliary personnel must recognize their authority and agree to comply with their decisions.

START –TIME LIMIT –DEADLINES

TIME LIMIT: 11 h

1. START Bolzano	07.30 am	00 h
2. Corno del Renon	01.00 pm	06 h
3. TARGET Sarentino	07.30 pm	11 h

Time limits (maximum times for the individual sections) are shown on the map of the route. Athletes must leave the checkpoint by 30 minutes – at the latest – after the time limit expires. Runners who exceed the time limit will be excluded from the race. The final runner called „Besenläufer“ from the organizer will accompany the last runners up to the next checkpoint. All participants must follow the instructions given by the race judges. Participants can exit from the race only when they are near a check- point, unless they are injured or suffering from exhaustion. The judge will decide what to do and will organize the return to Bolzano. Every participant must communicate the exit from the race to a race marshal or the race control, phone nr. +39 0471 1551040. The organizers reserve the right to end the race or change the dead- lines in case of inclement weather and/or for safety reasons.

INFRACTIONS AND SANCTIONS

Officials along the circuit will be authorized to check whether participants are complying with the rules. Officials are authorized to disqualify athletes immediately or inform the jury about infractions they observe. The jury will then levy sanctions according to the following table:

INFRACTION	SANCTION
Failure to have the required safety equipment	From 2 hours to disqualification
Taking a short cut or leaving the marked route	Disqualification
Refusal to submit a check	Disqualification

Voluntary littering by a contestant or attendant	Disqualification

DOPING

All contestants must abide by international rules on doping. Athletes may be given an antidoping check before, during and after the race.

CHANGE OF ROUTE AND CANCELLATION

The organizers reserve the right to change the program, the route, the locations of the assistance and refreshment points, and the time limits at any time and without notice. The race may be cancelled at any time for safety reasons. The start of the race may be postponed or invalidated due to bad weather. The organizers reserve the right to modify or remove sections of the route as necessary. If changes are made or the race is suspended, contestants will not be entitled to a refund of the entry fee.

INSURANCE

The organizers will stipulate a liability insurance policy for the entire duration of the competition. Participation in the race assumes that contestants take full responsibility for their participation. Thus, if damage or other consequences are reported after the race, the contestants waive their right to take action against the organizers.

RIGHTS

All contestants waive their rights on their own image before, during and after the race.
